Learning Cymraeg?

Come and enjoy chatting in Welsh and meet new friends who are learning. Welsh is everywhere at the Eisteddfod and it's a great place to come and have a go!

There's free translation across the Maes. Keep an eye for the little logo and pick up your free translation equipment. And if you're thinking of learning Welsh, pop into Maes D to find out more, or go to www.learnwelsh.com to find a course that works for you

In the evening

There are all kinds of events and activities on the Maes and around the town in the evening, including gigs, shows, plays and a few surprises! And don't miss the Eisteddfod's little brother, Maes B - the world's largest contemporary Welsh language music festival!
